Re: MUR 7084
William W. Lee, Jr.;
National Research Group, LLC

Dear Madam and Sir:

This is written with reference to the letter from Jeff S. Jordan, Esq. to William W. Lee, Jr., dated June 15, 2016, relative to a complaint you numbered 7084.

By letter dated June 23, 2016, we filed a Statement of Designation of Counsel which designated the undersigned as counsel to William W. Lee, Jr. and National Research Group, LLC, in this matter; and we requested an extension until July 15, 2016 within which to submit legal and factual materials to demonstrate why the Commission should take no action on this matter. By letter dated June 23, 2016, we were informed the Office of General Counsel granted our extension request. For the reasons set forth below, the Federal Election Commission (the Commission) should swiftly dismiss the Complaint against William W. Lee, Jr., and National Research Group, LLC (Respondents).

In her Complaint of June 6, 2016 to the Commission in this matter, Ms. Lisa Clarkson alleges violations of the Federal Election Campaign Act (FECA) by Scott Taylor, a candidate for the Office of United States House of Representatives (VA-2), his campaign committee (Scott Taylor for Congress), the Committee's Treasurer (John G. Selph), a political action committee known as Special Operating OPSEC Political Action Committee and Education Fund, its Treasurer (Michael Smith) and Scott Taylor in his capacity as President of the aforesaid political action committee. While Ms. Clarkson does not allege that Respondents

William W. Lee, Jr. and/or National Research Group, LLC (a single member limited liability company), have violated FECA, she alleged violations by Scott Taylor for Congress related to a contribution received by Scott Taylor for Congress from "William W. Lee, Jr. Owner National Research Group (sic)". As confirmed by counsel with Ms. De Beau, the Commission is treating that allegation as a Complaint against Respondents and served MUR 7084 upon Respondents for a response.

By this letter, Respondents argue that Ms. Clarkson provided false allegations and facts upon which the Commission would find a reason to believe that a violation by Respondents has occurred, and respectfully asks the Federal Election Commission take no further action and close the file on this matter.

In her Complaint, Ms. Clarkson's sole allegation related to Respondent William W. Lee, Jr. (and by implication Respondent National Research Group, LLC) appears at unnumbered pages 2 and 3 of the Complaint. This Response will only address Ms. Clarkson's allegations as they relate to Respondent William W. Lee, Jr. and Respondent National Research Group, LLC. Respondents are wholly without information upon which to respond to any other allegations.

Ms. Clarkson alleges, at unnumbered pages 2 and 3, that Scott Taylor for Congress "solicits and accepts contributions from government contractors in violation of 52 U.S.C.A. § 30119 and 11 C.F.R. § 115(a) and § 115.2." Ms. Clarkson's entire allegation, as it relates to Respondents, states that at page 14, Item B of the 2016 Quarterly FEC Report of Scott Taylor for Congress (attached as Exhibit 1), William W. Lee, Jr. is "Listed as a government contractor", and lists as "evidence" the following web page (URL):
http://www.usaopps.com/government_contractors/contractor-5383608-NATIONAL-RESEARCH-GROU.htm. This is not an official government web site, and the listing was not authorized. See attached copy as Exhibit 2.

Based upon this utterly incomplete diligence on the part of Ms. Clarkson, she then misrepresents a contribution made by William W. Lee, Jr. to Scott Taylor for Congress by intentionally or negligently falsifying the status of Mr. Lee's limited liability company as a "government contractor."

To be clear: Mr. Lee made a contribution to Scott Taylor for Congress that meets all legal standards under FECA, and properly identified himself as a "Self-employed" "consultant." In addition, as attested to in the attached affidavit, National Research Group, LLC: (i) is a single member limited liability company, not a corporation; (ii) is not currently a functioning entity, and was not at the time of the contribution in question; and (iii) is not now, and never has been or will it be a federal contractor, and has never sought federal contracting business. In addition, Mr. Lee was never solicited by Scott Taylor and/or his campaign committee. The contribution provided Mr. Lee was a legal contribution initiated by Mr. Lee.

As for Ms. Clarkson's diligence, a review of the 2016 Quarterly FEC Report of Scott Taylor for Congress, along with the Complaint at unnumbered pages 2-3, reveals that Complainant relied upon the "Name of Employer" designation for each of the other 10 purported illegal contributions, and took the time to cross reference that information with a DUNS number. A DUNS number is, of course, required in order to obtain federal contracts.¹ But it is not requested or reported on the FEC Quarterly Report. Presumably Ms. Clarkson researched contributor company names to discover their DUNS number.

To be sure, the National Research Group, LLC was not listed as Mr. Lee's employer because it was not, in fact, his employer. It was a non-functioning LLC of which he was the sole member. Yet Ms. Clarkson made her allegation based solely upon an unmonitored, unofficial, unauthorized commercial business data aggregator web site called "USAOPPS - Government Opportunities." That web site simply aggregates data concerning business entities and on its own attaches information such as the erroneous designation "government contractor." The web host then hopes to entice the entity listed to use the web site as a marketing platform. Tellingly, on a listed company's page (but unfortunately cut from the Exhibit attached) the web site has included a disclaimer:

Found any discrepancies in your company profile?

http://www.usaopps.com/government_contractors/contractor-5031562-BEC-ENVIRONMENTAL-IN.htm

Respondents were unaware of the web page, do not recall any usage of the web page and never authorized the "government contractor" designation. Upon receiving the Complaint and reviewing the web site, Respondents removed National Research Group, LLC entirely from the web site using the "update/remove" function described above. See Exhibit 3.

Had Ms. Clarkson conducted even a modicum of diligence, she would have found a host of similar web sites that actually list National Research Group, LLC correctly as a "business consultant." See attached as Exhibit 4 a google search revealing at least 4 such examples. Instead, Ms. Clarkson knowingly or negligently made a false complaint and/or provided false information related to Respondents, causing them and the Commission unnecessary expense in time, effort and money.

In conclusion, the contribution made by William W. Lee, Jr. to Scott Taylor for Congress listed in the Complaint was within lawful federal limits and from federally permissible funds. The documents and argument attached which support that conclusion are clear and convincing and demonstrate that the compliance systems established and implemented by Scott Taylor for Congress, accurately reported the contribution. It is respectfully submitted the Federal Election Commission take no further action and close the file on this matter as it relates to Respondents William W. Lee, Jr. and National Research Group, LLC.

Very truly yours,

Christopher T. Craig
